TERRI HILL has been producing colorful works of communication for the last 32 years. Her background in Graphic Design has influenced her Watercolor Art. The studio at Designer:Hill still has the latest computer systems and software, but now includes brushes, tubes of paint and 300 lb. watercolor paper too.

Terri Hill's paintings are known for their rich, saturated color and unusual vantage point. Being a "healthy lifestyle enthusiast," Terri paints what she loves. You can see the influence of living in wonderful Northern California...it's pretty obvious that she runs, bikes, and swims as well as enjoys the wonderful local fruits and vegetables and libations. "This area is such a perfect place to be as a painter...the good life is wonderful for creating great art," says Terri.

Terri shows her work at local galleries, art and wine events, restaurants, and Open Studios. You can also find Terri's paintings at Viewpoints Gallery in Los Altos www.viewpointsgallery.com, at Los Gatos Museums Gallery and on her website, www.designerhill.com.
